Says Auto to Aid Railways

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) —
The automobile will put the railroads back into the passenger business, says a Maine railroad executive.

E. Spencer Miller, president of the Maine Central Railroad, says railroad passenger service will increase because "of a public need to eliminate the uneconomic expense of superhighways, highway congestion and air pollution."

Weather Has Cleared in Many Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Violent weather practically disappeared from the national scene today, but freezing rain and snow ended the unseasonable warmth in the East.

Routed by a cold front the mercury in New York City plunged from Thursday's high of 58 degrees to an early morning 31 degrees. The 58-degree mark was a record for Feb. 2, erasing the previous high of 55 set in 1933.

Pedestrians in New York City slipped off their hats and coats Thursday to enjoy the unusual warmth, but late in the day the readings started to fall. Snow, freezing rain and rain doused
New York City as winds increased. Today's highs were expected to be in the upper 20s.

The Weather Bureau said that the storm pattern had shifted north of the border to bring a needed respite to most of the nation. Chicago and most of the Midwest — still digging out from last week's snow storm — welcomed the news.

In Upstate New York temperatures were in the mid-20s with some new snow. There was up to 6 inches in far northeastern
New York and the mountain areas.

The storm that dumped about 8 inches of snow on New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine and lesser amounts elsewhere was expected to taper off during the night. But colder weather and gusty winds were expected today.

Snow, hail and rain doused
Connecticut Thursday night.
Some areas recorded 1 to 3 inches of snow. Small-craft warnings were up on Long Island Sound.

A cold front moved across Maryland Thursday and abruptly ended the unseasonable warm weather. The snow flurries mostly were mixed with rain, but Garrett County got 1/2 inches of snow.

The temperature climbed to 60 degrees in Philadelphia
Thursday to tie a record set in 1933. The mercury then dropped sharply and some snow fell by nightfall. The early morning reading today was 31 degrees.
Light snow fell in much of Pennsylvania Thursday.

Snow flurries lingered around the Great Lakes and central Appalachians.

Ex-Arkansas Treasurer Dies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ralph Koonce, 73, former state treasurer, died Thursday.

Koonce was treasurer from 1927 to 1930 under Govs. John complete.

Chief U. S. Trust Buster Can Joke

By STEPHEN M. AUG
WASHINGTON (AP) — Donald F. Turner, the government's chief trust buster, can joke about an opponent but he's dead serious that "substantial competitors can't merge."

Turner glanced at a set of pictures in an outer office showing his predecessors as chief of the Justice Department's antitrust division. One had been reversed to face the wall.

"That's our little joke for the day," he said. "The picture was of Lee Loewinger, now a Federal Communications Commissioner and currently a Turner adversary in the world of financial marriages."

Turner is a slightly greying, somewhat balding man who looks like the prototype of a New England college professor.
But he's a long way from the Harvard University classroom where he once taught antitrust law.

Take this week for example:
He induced the FCC — including Loewinger — to reconsider its approval of the merger of International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. and American

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

Broadcasting Companies Inc.
Confirmed he is looking into the computer industry, 75 per cent controlled by International Business Machines Corp.

Said the department is also checking on the nuclear power industry.

Turner's touch also is being felt in the banking industry.
The Comptroller of the Currency's office maintains that the Justice Department is trying to substitute its views for the comptroller's expertise in banking matters.

FCC Commissioner James J.
Wadsworth said Wednesday that the department is trying to substitute its judgement for the "expert judgement" of the FCC.
But Turner has a one sentence rule that generally governs the department's attitude toward business mergers: "Substantial competitors can't merge."

He does not believe antitrust law should block natural economic development, but said, "I do believe in using it very strongly (so) that concentration and large size do not go beyond the bounds of what is absolutely necessary."

Turner, 45, said he's "got the best job in the government," but added quickly that he intends some day to return to teaching. "I can't imagine it (assistant attorney general) as a permanent career."

Already this native of Chippewa Falls, Wis., has studied at Northwestern, Harvard and Yale, served as a naval officer in the South Pacific during World War II and worked for a year as law clerk to Justice
Tom C. Clark of the Supreme Court. He married in 1955 and has two children.

designed in part to answer policy declarations published in Hanoi last weekend. Administration officials privately confirmed that Johnson's remarks were carefully considered in advance and were intended to serve a purpose.

The purpose is to prod and encourage the Communist government of North Vietnam to come up with a definite proposal for ending the bombing and getting peace talks started. The possibility of such a North Vietnamese move was raised by the statements made last weekend.
Johnson's move presumably is being reinforced through diplomatic channels as was the North Vietnamese maneuver
earlier this week.

It could even be done through direct diplomatic contact. The United States and North Vietnam each has representatives in a number of world capitals, among them Moscow, New Delhi, Cairo, Paris and Algiers.
There are occasional reports that they have made secret contact.

In view of some officials here
the U.S. and North Vietnamese governments are closer than they've ever been on a formula for trying to start settling the war; others believe that until the next moves are made and weighed it is extremely difficult to read any significance into what has happened so far.

As one official put it, "We know they're putting the biggest campaign they've ever mounted to get us to stop the bombing for nothing. What we don't know is whether something serious may come out of all this in the weeks or months ahead."

What intrigues diplomats officials here is the difference which remains. Hanoi has not promised peace talks would result if the bombing were stopped. The United States has not pledged that a promise of peace talks would be enough to stop the bombing.

But both sides seem to have indicated that such developments are possible.

This is the finest convertible made in America

This is the Lincoln Continental convertible. It is the only four door convertible made in America. It is the only convertible we make.

We who design and sell Continental can see no logic at all in making 2 or 3 or 4 convertibles. If we did we'd have to decide what to take away from one model, and what to put on another. This is not the Continental way.

We take all the good things we can put in a convertible, and we put them in one convertible. The car you drive is neither more than the next Continental, nor is it less.

But it is certainly far more than any other convertible you can own. It should be. It's Continental.

MR. AND MRS. PERRY FOSTER

Miss Linda Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Miller, became the bride of Perry Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Foster, on Saturday, January 28 in the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Carlton Roberts, a cousin of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony before a mantle decorated with candles and smilax flanked by baskets of white gladioli.

Soft background music was heard prior to the exchange of vows, and Miss Jennifer Smith, a cousin of the bride, sang "Whither Thou Goest." She wore pale green taffeta. Tommy Miller, brother of the bride, lighted the candles and also served as usher.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a champagne suit with matching accessories. Her short veil fell from a pearl tiara, and she had tiny pearl ear bobs. The bride carried a white bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Martha McLeland, the bride's only attendant, was attired in pink satin with matching accessories. She carried a single, long-stemmed pink rose.

Harold Bradshaw of Redfield, Ark., cousin of the bridegroom was his best man.

Each of the mothers of the wedding couple wore beige with black accessories. Mrs. Miller's she will return to her home in Hope.

Tommy Franklin Hyatt is visiting in the George Frazier home and with Mrs. B. C. Hyatt. His maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bass of North Little Rock will arrive Saturday to drive him to Longview, Tex., where he will join his parents and brother in their new home.

Hope Kiwanians and their wives, totaling about 30, went to Foreman Thursday night for a Kiwanis Club Charter Night. The delegation was headed by Hope President Lynn Harris, and past Lt. Gove, Dean Murphy was master of ceremonies.

He wrote and did part of the commentary in a special 90-minute documentary called "China - The Roots of Madness," currently being broadcast by many independent stations across the nation.

The program, rather than attempting to guess what is and what will happen, concentrated on showing the terrible conditions - internal and external warfare, famine and grinding poverty - that have plagued the vast country since, more than 100 years ago, it finally permitted "barbarians" from beyond its walls to enter.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The studio limousine swings off the freeway and glides through softly rolling green hills, studded with gnarled sprawl of ancient oaks.

James Stewart, a very-much-live legend of Hollywood, is being delivered for a day's work at the Albertson Ranch, location for his latest movie, "Fire-creek." At the ranch entrance, he hops out, unfastens the gate, and looks it after the car passes through.

As the limousine bounces over the unpaved road, Stewart talks about his costar, Henry Fonda. Surprisingly, they have never appeared together in a full-length feature before.

"Oh, Hank and I go back to—well, to the year I got out of Princeton (1932)," Stewart reminisces. "I went up to Cape Cod to appear with the University Players, and Hank was up there playing with another bunch—the Cape Players it was."

"That winter we both went down to New York to see if we could get work as actors. We roomed together, along with Myron McCormick and sometimes Josh Logan or Kent Smith. Oh, we had some pretty crazy times."

The car arrived at the local great sympathy for its people, used old photographs and old film to show China's long struggle to enter the modern world. He observed the irony in the fact that in 50 years, it succeeded only in moving from "the tyranny of Confucius and the Manchu emperors to the tyranny of communism and Mao."

The program, broadcast on various dates in various communities, was a simple, understandable resume of Chinese history and one that will help the average American who now thinks of China as a nation of stock villains. It also provides insight on the reason China turned to Mao's brand communism, and it certainly will help us to understand future events.

White himself refused to do any predicting, but spoke of what he called "the madness of their minds." But, he cautioned, it is as hard to reach the mind of China as it is to reach the moon, and, in this nuclear age, "of far greater urgency."

It was, in general, a fine program.

"I thought maybe I could shoot 'em with an arrow, then they couldn't get under the house because the arrow would still be sticking in 'em," explains Fonda. "But I never could hit one of the damn things!"

"Do you suppose," says Fonda, "that all the things we tell about really happened, or do they get better each time we tell them?"

"A little of both," says Stewart, "a little of both."

FINE FOR WRONGING RAILROAD

NEW DELHI (AP)—A recommendation has been submitted by a government committee that anyone who sneaks aboard a railroad train without a ticket or pulls the emergency stop chain without justification be fined a minimum of 10 rupees ($1.30).

LOVE IS BLIND

Dear Helen: When I'm alone and sensible I know what a fool I am. When I'm with HIM, I'm a brainless ninny.

He is six feet two, muscled, gorgeous, divorced three times, and has been with almost every good looking woman in town, married or single.

But he asked ME—imagine: ME!—to marry him.

Away from him I tell myself each divorce has been for adultery—his. But I've just come home from another wonderful evening with him, and I'm asking you—do I have a chance to change him? —BOWLED OVER

Dear Bowled Over: . . . Approximately the same chance you'd have teaching a rabbit to take cold showers.

This kind of man seldom settles down till he's too old or worn out for anything else. Are you sure he isn't? —H.

Dear Helen: We're new in the country. Our neighbors on the hill look at us through spyglasses. I know, because I got ours out the other day and looked back.

Every time we're outdoors, we see them up there peeking. I'm tempted to put on a fake orgy for them on the front lawn, so they'll have something to spread around town. Or what WILL we do? —FROM THE CITY

Dear Helen: My husband has an aunt who is very talented when it comes to baking and decorating cakes, but it seems she has another talent: gossip.

She has baked many cakes for us, telling us they were gifts to our children on various birthdays, christenings, etc. Now today I was told that she has been maligning us behind our backs, telling everyone we owe her money for these cakes.

Should I tell my husband, call her and ask her what's going on, or let the whole thing slide? —D. L.

Dear Helen: I have cancer. Well, so what? I'm taking treatments every week, and I think I'll make it. If not, I've lived a good life. I don't want a lot of sympathy and people telling me about others who (deep sigh) had "your trouble." Can't they say the word? Cancer isn't a dirty name. Please tell people who visit or write to those fighting cancer to treat them normally, not with hushed talk. I'll laugh at my disease even if it kills me. Let others do the same! —FIGHTER

BRAVO, FIGHTER! I believe you've already won. —H.

Banked for One Night

In 1814, when the British burned Washington, D.C., the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were taken to Leesburg, Va., where the manuscripts were stored in a bank for safekeeping for one night.

Now, honest, isn't the last the only adult thing to do? —H.

Bobcats to Take on Camden

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Hope Star Sports Writer

With special attentions focused probably more heavily on their Saturday night match with Fairview, the Bobcats will finish out the first round of their Region 4AA basketball schedule tonight in a game with the Camden Panthers in Jones Field House.

The Panthers, who occupy the cellar in the region standings shouldn't present too much of a threat to the Cats, who are still strong contenders despite a won-loss record of 4-3. The Camden team has yet to win a game in district competition through the first four weeks of play.

On the other hand the Cats opponent tomorrow night has a 4AA performance record which is almost unblemished. Almost, in that they do have one defeat — a loss to Hope.

The Cats managed to edge out the Cardinals, 51-50, in a double overtime affair at Hope on the first night of 4AA action.

However, tomorrow's outing will be played on the district-leading Cardinals home court which could make the same difference that it may have meant for the Bobcats in the first meeting.

If the Cats do get by Camden tonight as expected, they will finish the first round robin with a 5-3 record. However they will have to fare somewhat better through the second round in order to stay in contention.

In fact the Cats will have to do markedly better if they expect to go to the Class AA state tournament in March. In order to go to the tournament a team must finish the season in the first three places in the 4AA standings.

The prime obstacle in the way of the Cats defeating Fairview tomorrow is the Cardinal's 6-foot senior scoring ace, Barry McMahan. McMahan led the district in scoring last season and is leading currently this year with a per game average of 25 points.

The preliminary junior high game will precede both games at 6:30 p.m. tonight at Jones Field House and tomorrow at Camden (Fairview).

Musial Signs Infielders for Cardinals

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stan Musial, who for more than two decades came to terms with baseball's St. Louis Cardinals, has, for the first time, come to terms for them.

Musial signed infielders Dal Maxvill and Jerry Buchek Thursday — his first successful negotiations since becoming general manager last month.

The former great player, who did things with ease on the field, had no trouble in his first contract session from the management side of the desk. Both players signed after a short talk.

St. Louis now has 19 players under contract for the 1967 season.

Several other clubs also signed players Thursday.

The New York Mets brought to 29 the number of players in their fold by signing veterans Ed Bressoud and Chuck Hiller. Bressoud, 34, and Hiller, 31, are slated to share second base duties. The position was opened up when Ron Hunt was traded to Los Angeles.

Pitcher Hank Aguirre, who had a disappointing 3-9 record last season, signed with Detroit as did rookie pitcher George Frazier. The Tigers now have 25 players under contract.

Cleveland also signed a veteran pitcher and two rookies, signing them to signed list to 25. The pitcher is southpaw John Olerud. The rookies are outfielder Richie Scheinblum and pitcher Rick Underwood.

The California Angels and the New York Yankees signed the largest number of players. The Yankees signed six — all catchers — and the Yankees five — all pitchers.

Coming to terms with the Angels were Bob Rodgers, Tom Seaver, Merritt Ranney, Chris Short, Jim Hibbs and John Olerud. The latter two are rookies.

Hope Girls Make Finals in County

By RALPH ROUTON

With a balanced scoring attack and the usual outstanding guard play leading the way, the Hope Lady Cats moved into the finals of the Hempstead County tournament at Spring Hill by beating Blevins 59-30.

Hope led from the start with Carol Anthony and Gail Hartsfield exploding in a hot streak and led 22-9 after a quarter. They kept the pace in the second frame and moved to a 46-19 halftime lead.

Things slowed down quickly in the third stanza but Kathryn Coleman kept Blevins down and going in to the last period. Hope led 52-20.

The final period was played mostly between the reserves and Hope marched into the finals and will play winner of the Saratoga-Spring Hill game Saturday night.

Kathryn Coleman led Hope with 21, Carol Anthony 19, Gail Hartsfield 14 and Joe McKamie rounded out the scoring with 5. Turnage paced Blevins with 25.

Hope goes to Nashville tonight, seeking revenge from an early defeat. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Jr. Finals Tonight at Emmet

In Nevada County tournament play at Emmet last night the Prescott Junior boys tumbled Emmet 39-23. High for Prescott was Wren with 18. McBride had 13 for the loser.

Willisville Senior boys romped on Prescott 73-56 with West tossing in 33 points. White led Prescott with 22.

Emmet Senior boys downed Cale 76 to 50. Rhodes was high for Cale with 11 while Emmet's Hill tossed in 28.

Tonight is the Junior finals. At 7:30 Cale and Emmet Junior girls meet for the title. At 8:30 the Prescott and Cale Junior boys collide.

200 Dogs in Coon Hunt
KNOBEL, Ark. (AP) — Approximately 200 dogs are expected to compete in the state championship "wild coon hunt" here Saturday night.

No guns will be allowed during the hunt, and a trophy will be awarded to the dog getting the most points.

Points are awarded to the dog who strikes the first trail and trees the first raccoon, and a lesser number of points to the second dog, etc.

Clay, Terrell Taper Off for Big Fight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Cassius Clay and Ernie Terrell tapered off today in their training for their heavyweight championship showdown Monday in the Astrodome.

"We'll spar today and Friday and maybe just limber up Saturday," said Sam Solomon, Terrell's trainer.

Clay said he was in shape now.

"The muscles are ready... I'm sharp," he said. "Now all I want to do is keep tuned."

"Sometimes I let my opponent hit me in the body. I let him hit me 25—maybe 30 times—like George Chuvala. It takes something out of them. Maybe I lose the round but the next round something is gone from him."

Terrell again expressed his dislike for Clay.

"I don't know why he goes out of his way to make everybody dislike him but as far as I'm concerned he has succeeded," Terrell said.

Clay, the consensus champion, and Terrell, recognized as the title holder by the World Boxing Association, will settle the dispute Monday night and virtually all of the writers feel Clay will win.

Horsemen Favor Fall Racing

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A fall race meeting at Oaklawn Park here is favored by the Arkansas Division of the Horsemen's Benevolent Protective Association.

The association voted 79-2 in favor of a proposal made Thursday by L. E. Seba, a member of the association.

Present Arkansas law permits one 43-day race meeting or two 30-day meetings in a calendar year. A bill which would extend the 43-day meeting to 50 days has been offered in the Arkansas Legislature.

Louisville, Tulsa Game Important

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Louisville and Tulsa are building up toward one of the big games in college basketball this season.

The Louisville Cardinals, third-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, are out in front in the tough Missouri Valley Conference with a 6-1 record. Tulsa is right behind at 5-1 and coming fast.

The Golden Hurricane made it six in a row by pulling out a 65-62 road victory over North Texas in the last 31 seconds Thursday night.

The Hurricane hasn't lost since their defeat on the road to Louisville and their return game with the Cardinals at Tulsa Feb. 18 may well decide the conference championship and the right to play in the NCAA title tournament.

Two free throws by Eldridge Webb of Tulsa broke a 62-62 tie with 31 seconds on the clock. Another free throw by Bobby Smith in the closing seconds provided the final margin.

Colorado moved into a tie for the lead in the Big Eight Conference by downing Oklahoma State 49-42 on the road while New Mexico, back home after four straight defeats on the road, walloped Arizona State 88-48. It was the worst defeat ever recorded in the Western Athletic Conference.

Providence, No. 10 in the AP poll and the only Top Ten team to see action, romped over visiting Gannon 92-66 as Jimmy Walker hit for 18 points and put on a marvelous display of ball handling and passing.

Norm Vanlier, another slick ball handler and passer, sparked St. Francis, Pa., to a 102-74 victory over Creighton at Altoona. Vanlier, a sophomore, scored 12 points, but he continually fed Larry Lewis and Lenny Murray who tallied 26 and 24, respectively.

Mike Wittman racked up 28 points and grabbed 22 rebounds to lead the Miami, Fla. Hurricanes over Memphis State 88-63 in a surprise at Miami Beach. In another upset Portland humbled Oregon State 48-43 at home.

Rather Make the Shots, Not the Laps

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There was a simple incentive behind Bob Lloyd's education in foul shooting: he just preferred making 50 shots to running 50 laps.

Lloyd told about his early foul shooting days Thursday night after he sank all 19 free throws he tried and extended his streak to 47 straight in Rutgers' 68-57 basketball victory over New York University.

He now is within six of the collegiate record of 53 consecutive free throws set last year by Bob Gleason of Montclair State. He can surpass the record Saturday night at Bucknell.

"My high school coach, Del Park, was a real disciplinarian," Lloyd said, recalling his days in Upper Darby, Pa. "We were just supposed to miss a foul shot. It's a free point."

"If you missed a foul shot, you had to run 50 or 100 laps, and I didn't want to run any laps."

The 6-foot-1 senior hasn't missed many fouls this season. He's made 148 of 155 for a .955 percentage. His 47 straight eclipses the 45 in a row he made earlier in the season, and the 45 surpassed the 43 straight he made last season.

When he does miss, it's usually because he wasn't concentrating on the shot but thinking of something else.

"Last year I thought of the streak, and I started missing," the blond business administration major explained. "This year I'm just shooting and not worrying about the streak."

Tigers Take on Dunbar Saturday

By JAMES WITHERSPOON, JR.

The Yerger High School Tigers will meet the Titans of Dunbar High School of Texarkana, Texas here tomorrow night. Game-time 6:30.

The senior boys were upset by Fordyce Tuesday night 69-58, but the junior boys came through to win their third victory in their last four starts, defeating their opponents 49-37. The junior boys trailed throughout the first half, in their game with Fordyce. They came back to out score their opponents, and win the game in the second half. In the last few weeks the junior boys have come on to completely dominate their opponents.

The junior boys now have the confidence they need to win, against the high rated Titans of Texarkana. The Titans junior boys are a high scoring team. Despite, the excellent game the team played against Fordyce, they feel that they will have to play a more aggressive ballgame to beat Dunbar.

The senior boys despite their loss to Fordyce, will be trying to strengthen their offense, which seemed to be very weak as they missed 50 percent of their field goal against Fordyce. The Tigers will be going up against a team this week, who have averaged 100 points per game. Dunbar will also have a height advantage, but the tigers think that their speed will be the equalizer. The fast break has been a play the tigers have perfected these past few weeks, and they hope to use it as much as possible against the Titans.

Both Yerger Tigers teams are always exciting to watch. The action is always fast and furious. They need and ask for your support as they take on the Titans of Dunbar High School, here in Harris Gymnasium tomorrow night.

Handicap Entries in Competition

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Horses with designs on the Feb. 18 running of the coveted $100,000-added Widener Handicap, get their final competitive tune-up Saturday in the 1½ miles of the $50,000-added Seminole Handicap at Hialeah Park.

Original, 1966 handicap champion Bold Bidder was expected to head the field of a dozen or so. But a leg injury, called slight by trainer Woody Stephens, will keep him on the sidelines.

So the race shapes up as a wide-open affair with much of the interest on Chateaubriand, Argentine-bred champion who has been racing in Venezuela. It will be the first start in this country for the stakes-winning South American and he'll carry 118 pounds.

Others expected to start include Stupendous from Mrs. H. C. Phillips' Wheatley Stable, Dr. Loren P. Guy's Menden Point, Ada L. Rice's Advocate and Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Exhibitionist.

Arkansan Signs for $75,000

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, whose early-season hitting helped carry the Baltimore Orioles to the 1966 American League pennant, has signed his 1967 contract for about $75,000.

"It's the best raise I've ever gotten," Robinson said before getting an 8:30 a.m. flight out of Baltimore for a weeklong series of appearances in Montana and Canada.

Robinson, at 29 the oldest Oriole in point of service, jumped from about $35,000 to $50,000 after being named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1964. Last season, after a brief holdout, he signed for approximately $55,000.

Outfielder Frank Robinson, at $103,000 is the only higher paid Oriole.

"I'm looking forward to a good year," Brooks said. "Last season I didn't do as well after the All Star game, and this year I've got to keep on a more even keel."

The slick-fielding third baseman got off to a fast start at his plate in 1966. He had 70 runs batted in by mid-season, and led the league until Aug. 10.

Brooks was hitting .306 through July 22 with 81 RBI and 19 home runs before going into a slump which lasted the rest of the season. For the last 60 games, Robinson hit .206 with 19 RBI and four homers.

In addition to reaching the 100 RBI total for the second time in his career, Robinson was voted by the players as the top third baseman in the league for the seventh straight year and was named the outstanding player in the All Star game.

Brooks and teammates Frank Robinson and Boog Powell were the only American Leaguers named to the major league All Star team at the end of the season.

Arkansas State Signs Player

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Quarterback Wood McArthur of Little Rock Hall High School and halfback William Waldrup of Batesville, Miss., have signed grant-in-aid scholarships with Arkansas State.

Arkansas State coach Bennie Elender announced the signings Thursday.

McArthur, a six-foot 185-pounder, completed more than 50 per cent of his passes last season for more than 900 yards.

Continental Race 3 p. m. Saturday

By F. T. MACFEELY

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The first starting place in a 24-hour race carries little advantage, but prestige is involved; so there sits Dan Gurney in a Ford Mark II at the head of a 60-car field when they roar off in the Daytona Continental Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Closing time for qualifying was approaching Thursday when Gurney set a record 119.165 miles an hour pace and beat out Jim Hall's newest Chaparral and Mexican Pedro Rodriguez in a 12-cylinder Ferrari for the honor of leading the pack.

The 35-year-old Gurney, who lives in Costa Mesa, Calif., is known as a leader and is in his most familiar element on the road course of 3.81 miles over both the high banks and twisting infield turns at Daytona International Speedway.

With his partner, former Indianapolis champ A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., Gurney becomes the favorite.

Hall's feat of setting the second fastest speed of 118.897 m.p.h. was a surprise. Not that his unique Chaparral with its wing hovering two feet over the body isn't competitive. It is right in a class with Ford and Ferrari, as an earlier model proved by winning the 12 hours of Sebring in 1965.

But the millionaire developer of the car from Midland, Tex., wasn't listed as a driver. He took over for a brief run and drove a faster lap than either of the two regular drivers — Bob Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, and Bruce Jennings of Towson, Md. They will drive in the race, with Hall in relief if needed.

Rodriguez made 118.856 in his Ferrari, entered by North American Racing Team of New York to back up two factory Ferraris from Italy which had to be content with fourth and sixth places on the starting grid. The 10 fastest qualifiers all broke the 116,434 m.p.h. record set by the late Ken Miles in a Mark II last year.

Among them are five of the improved Mark II's, three Ferraris and two Chaparrals.

Porkers Lose Four Gridders From Squad

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks have lost four football players, including three varsity candidates, but have added another junior college transfer.

Offensive guard Tom Spradlin of Pine Bluff enlisted in the Navy. Halfback Steve Higgins of Richardson, Tex., defensive halfback George Calhoun of Little Rock and freshman back Harry Sylar of Holly Grove failed to pass the required number of semester hours.

The Razorbacks added Bob Stankovich, a 6-foot-5, 245-pound tackle, from Pratt, Kan., Junior College.

Massengale, Little Lead Desert Meet

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — U.S. Open champion Billy Casper studied the expensive scoreboard in the press tent and decided he was in good position as play resumed today in the third round of the $110,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic.

Veteran Gene Littler and Don Massengale were the coleaders at 139 starting out in what everyone hoped would be a calm round in contrast to Thursday's windy sandstorm.

By name, Casper counted 26 professionals ahead of himself and 42 in front of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

But Casper was five strokes behind the leaders, and Nicklaus and Palmer only six, and including today's round, this tournament has 54 holes to go.

"And we have the two toughest courses behind us," said Casper, referring to himself and apparently Arnie and Nicklaus, and the courses they have played — La Quinta and Eldorado.

The other two clubs in play Indian Wells and Bermuda Dunes — are regarded by the golfers as less evil. Par on each of the four is 36-36 — 72.

Casper, still eyeing the scoreboard, was anxious to determine some of the others who had also played La Quinta and Eldorado. There were only two who had better scores than himself, Bob Charles at 142 and Frank Boynton, 143.

Casper, putting poorly, had a 75 for his 144.

The 36-year-old Littler, who has won but two tournaments in the past two years — the World Series of Golf in 1966 and the Canadian Open in 1965, shot a 67 Thursday.

Palmer had a 72 for 145, and tied with him, among others, was Nicklaus, who survived the wind and had a 70, five strokes better than his first round.

Tied one stroke back of the lead at 140 were Lionel Hebert, Jack Cupit, Paul Bondeson and Dale Douglass.

The 141 group was packed with nine, including the first-round leader, Jay Dolan, who followed a 66 with a 75.

Pro Football Draft Third Week in March

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
The latest word on the pro football draft is that it probably will be held in the third week of March after both the National and American football leagues have had separate meetings.

The NFL, which struggled unsuccessfully to come up with a formula for the common draft last month in Los Angeles, will hold its annual meeting starting Feb. 20 in Honolulu.

The AFL will meet at Miami Beach, the week of Feb. 13.

In the meantime, the college seniors who have finished their careers can sit and wait.

No date has been set for the stocking of the New Orleans franchise with NFL veterans.

Vince Lombardi and his former assistants soon will have the NFL locked up, if Vincent does not already have complete control.

Bill Austin left Lombardi, wandered to Los Angeles and then came up with the Pittsburgh job last season. Norm Hecker graduated (if that is the right word) to Atlanta as head coach, taking with him Tom Fears from Lombardi's staff. Now Fears has become the new head man of the New Orleans Saints.

The resignation of Red Cochran, Green Bay backfield coach, leaves Lombardi with one job to fill. He should be able to take his pick of the men willing to direct that Packer offense.

The New York Giants still are losing. Dick Lynch decided to retire the other day and Jeff Smith, rookie linebacker, underwent surgery for a knee injury. Latest reports from Earl Morrill are that the veteran quarterback still has a cast on his right wrist. Clint Jones, Michigan State running back, could be the club's top draft pick.

MEDICARE CAN'T DO IT

DENVER (AP) — Mrs. Nancy Kindsvater, who presides at the information booth in the new federal office building, said a woman approached her and said, "I'm looking for my sister. She came in here to change her sex."

It turned out the sister had stopped in to get her medicare classification changed from male to female.

Each Sunday Evening at 7:00 p.m. Service we will join in a "Church-wide" Study under the leadership of our Commission on Missions. Tonight Mr. Teddy M. Jones, Sr. will speak on "As the Economist Sees It." The Pastor will introduce the study.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., agreed in a separate interview with Percy's assessment of the group's objectives. He said he had not been subjected to any attempted "arm twisting" when he opposed Dirksen.
Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., said he isn't going to let the fact that he is Dirksen's son-in-law influence his vote on specific issues. He said he leans toward support of the consular treaty.
Hatfield and Percy are regarded as "doves" on the Vietnam war. Dirksen generally has supported President Johnson's course and in the past has urged even greater escalation of military efforts than the President has been willing to undertake.
The GOP study group already has been briefed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Central Intelligence Agency director Richard Helms. Members plan to invite other Cabinet members to meet with them.
"We have an awful lot to learn about our new jobs," Percy explained.

MOON STATION equipped with a telescope operable from the earth is the subject of a study being done by Westinghouse Electric Corporation funded by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The artist's sketch shows future astronauts installing a "Mt. Palomar on the Moon," offering such advantages for space observations as a stable platform, cool even temperature, and absence of the dense atmosphere that earth-bound telescopes must penetrate

Challenge to Dirksen Denied by Newcomers

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The six newest Republican senators have formed an informal study club to inquire into national issues but deny it will serve as a base for any challenge to Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

Most of the half dozen, generally classed as moderates, say they won't go along with Dirksen's opposition to the U.S.-Soviet consular treaty, to expansion of East-West trade and to an open housing provision in any civil rights bill.

But individually they deny they plan to join forces with GOP moderates of more seniority who have made it clear they are not going to follow the Illinois senator's lead on some domestic and foreign policy matters, including the consular treaty.

There has been some private grumbling among these more experienced moderates that Dirksen often takes more conservative positions than they think is justified by majority GOP opinion in their states.

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., has said the new GOP members are primarily interested in getting background information on which to base their individual positions on major issues.

"There is no thought of challenging Sen. Dirksen's leadership," he said. "He and I have differences of opinion on several issues and we discuss them frankly. He has never tried in any way to get me to change a stand I have taken."

He said Dirksen has accepted an invitation to meet with the group soon.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., agreed in a separate interview with Percy's assessment of the group's objectives. He said he had not been subjected to any attempted "arm twisting" when he opposed Dirksen.

Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., said he isn't going to let the fact that he is Dirksen's son-in-law influence his vote on specific issues. He said he leans toward support of the consular treaty.

Hatfield and Percy are regarded as "doves" on the Vietnam war. Dirksen generally has supported President Johnson's course and in the past has urged even greater escalation of military efforts than the President has been willing to undertake.

The GOP study group already has been briefed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Central Intelligence Agency director Richard Helms. Members plan to invite other Cabinet members to meet with them.
"We have an awful lot to learn about our new jobs," Percy explained.

Republicans Seem Mixed Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans, now 21 months away from the 1968 presidential election, are in the same mixed-up condition they were in at the same time before the 1964 contest.

They don't have a single, dominant would-be candidate. They didn't have one in 1963, either. When they did make a choice, Barry Goldwater, it was one of their worst mistakes.

No wonder there is a sudden rash of stories about Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois, although the 47-year-old Percy has been in the Senate less than a month and this is the first public office he ever held.

George Romney, Michigan's thrice-elected governor, has been getting the most attention and the most publicity but he is on a long way from showing he would be the ideal candidate.

He still hasn't demonstrated, by anything he has said, that he would know his way around in the federal government or foreign affairs.

Richard M. Nixon, who lost the presidential race in 1960 and then lost the contest for governor of California in 1962, is in the same spot he was in before the Republicans picked Goldwater in 1964.

Now, as then, the former vice president is being talked of as a possible candidate, but hardly more. Nevertheless, despite those two major defeats behind him, Nixon seems to refuse to take "no" for an answer.

But, since 1960, he has not been able to whip up any great enthusiasm for himself as a rallying point.

Romney has been a successful governor of his state. But there is little public opinion on what kind of president he would make or even what kind of candidate he would make because his national and international views

He has been reported boning up on foreign affairs - particularly Vietnam. What he has said on Vietnam has been a mish-mash.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Arthritis Is Not A Simple Disease

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q-I have arthritis in my right hand. My doctor gave me gold shots but had to stop them because they made me ill. What should I do now?
A-Many drugs are used in the treatment of arthritis. This is not a simple disease, however, the best results often require the team approach of a large clinic or teaching hospital.

Q-I have rheumatoid arthritis in my hips and knees. I have been taking Tandearil and Compazine for several years. Is it harmful to take them so long?

A-Oxyphenbutazone (Tandearil) is widely used in the treatment of arthritis. Prochlorperazine (Compazine) is a tranquilizer. Both of these powerful drugs should be taken only under medical supervision. Anyone who takes either drug over a long period should have periodic blood counts.

Q-I have rheumatoid arthritis. When I was in the hospital my doctor gave me cortisone. Now that I'm home I'm taking prednisone. Is that the same thing?

A-Prednisone is a widely used cortisone derivative. When any drug of the cortisone group is taken for a chronic condition it is advisable to take it only one week in each month. If, however, a person has been taking it regularly he should discontinue it gradually.

Q-I have heard that anyone who is over 50 should take an ounce or two of whisky daily as an aid to circulation and to help prevent a heart attack. Is this true? Would wine have the same effect?

A-Although one or two ounces of hard liquor daily is not harmful, it is not necessary for health and, if persisted in over a period of years, may lead to increasing the dose and subsequent alcoholism. Insofar as the alcohol is

SCRUB FOR SOLOMON
AR'ISHA, Tanzania (AP)—Solomon, a tame hyena which has been turned loose in Tanzania's Serengeti National Park, is missing his home comforts.

Dr. H. Kruuk, a Dutch expert who has been studying hyena for nearly two years, hopes Solomon eventually will return to life in the wild.

But one night, while Kruuk was taking a bath, Solomon burst into the house. He, too, made straight for the bath. Kruuk leapt out as Solomon leaped in.

The homesick hyena got a good scrub and a good supper before being shown politely to the door.

Hearty Casserole
COMBINE meatballs with tasty vegetables, serve with salad and French bread for hearty cold-weather family dinner.

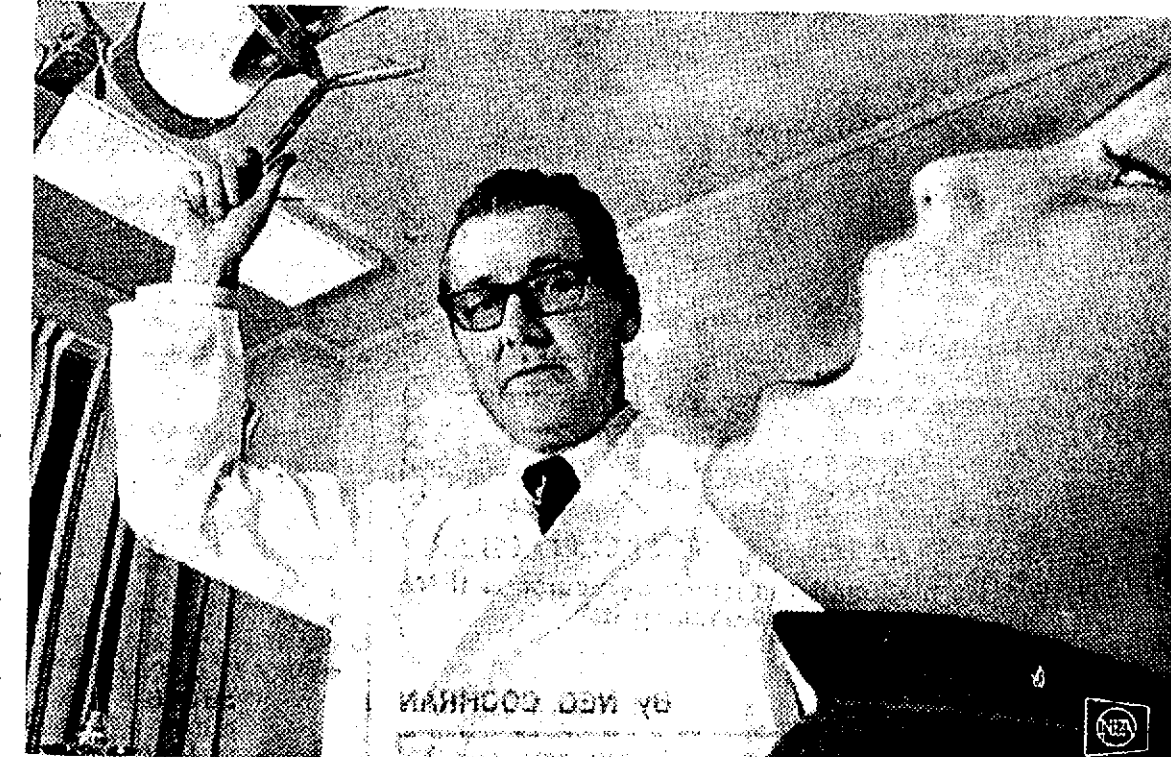

MEATBALL-VEGETABLE CASSEROLE
2 lbs. ground beef chuck
1 egg
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 tbsp. A.1. Sauce
1/3 cup dry bread crumbs
1/4 cup water
3 tbsp. butter or margarine
1/4 cup dry white wine
1 can whole tomatoes (large)
6 carrots, pared and sliced
12 small white onions
6 medium potatoes, pared & sliced in half
1 tbsp. minced parsley
Mix together meat, egg, salt, pepper, A.1., crumbs and water. Shape into 12 balls, brown on all sides in shortening. Transfer to casserole. Add remaining ingredients, cover and bake in oven for 1 1/2 hours. Serves about 6.

taken in the evening to relax tension it might help to prevent a heart attack. The equivalent of two ounces of 90-proof whisky would be nine ounces of table wine (about 10 per cent alcohol) or 4 1/2 ounces of fortified wine (about 20 per cent).

Q-I read that lecithin made from soy beans can lower the cholesterol level of the blood and dissolve the fat in the arteries. What do you think about this?

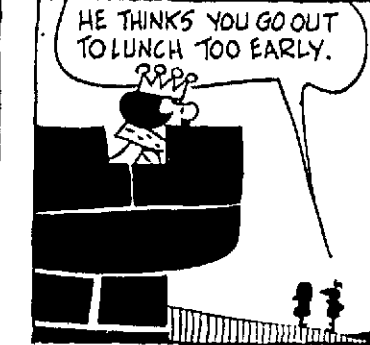

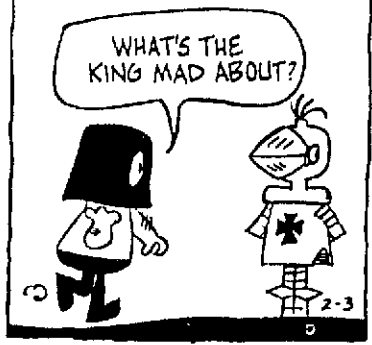

A-I think you can't believe quite everything you read. Although lecithin may lower the cholesterol level, it is nowhere near as effective for this purpose as large doses of niacin. Any claims that it will dissolve fat that has already been deposited in the arteries are unsubstantiated.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

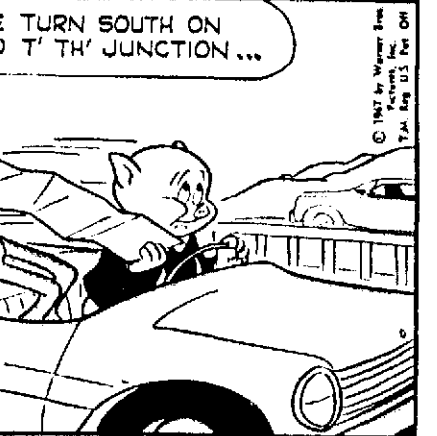

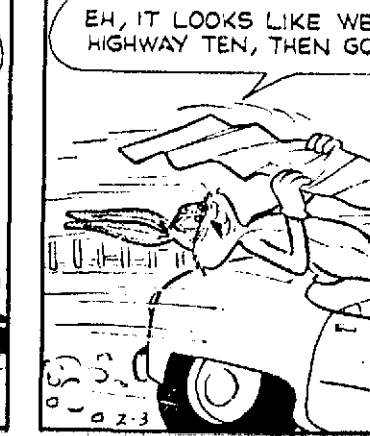

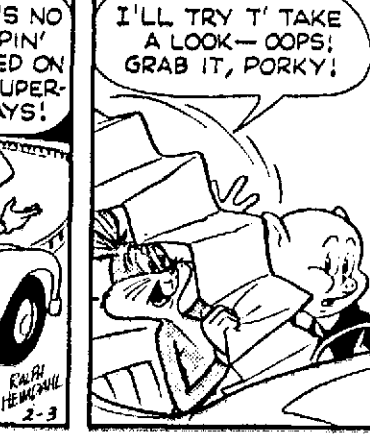

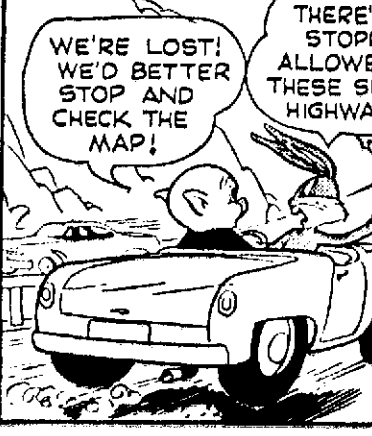

TRANSPLANTING OF TEETH is being done successfully by a Swedish doctor, Karl Erik Thonners of Stockholm. Although the "new" tooth comes from the transplant patient himself, it is removed completely for 15 minutes before being put back in the mouth. Dr. Thonners uses teeth that have grown into the jaw because the space they would ordinarily take was too narrow. He rearranges the other teeth, making room for the "new" one. While out of the mouth, the transplanted tooth is kept alive by being placed in a serum.

WORLD ALMANAC
FACTS

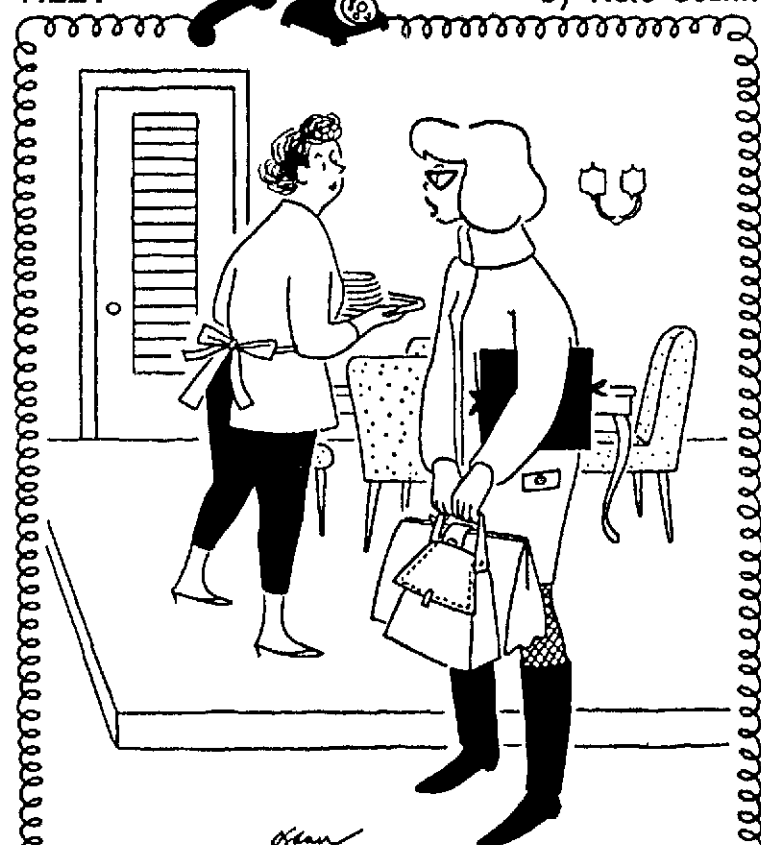

Tapioca, often used in puddings, comes from the roots of the cassava plant, says The World Almanac. In the natural state the roots contain highly poisonous hydrocyanic acid and therefore cannot be eaten. To obtain the starchy tapioca pellets, the roots are exposed to heat, which dissipates the acid.

Certain bridge writers have been highly critical of American slam bidding. We have never belonged to this anvil chorus and have seen no evidence that top level American bidding is inferior to anything except possibly that of Italy's Blue Team that has beaten everyone in the world for the last ten years. Therefore it is most refreshing to be able to show a hand from the American team trials where all five pairs easily reached a grand slam in hearts, in spite of the fact that the opponents held an ace, a king and a couple of queens.

The bidding at all tables started with two clubs. This is our catch-all forcing bid. Every South player made the positive response of two hearts and every North jumped right to five no-trump.

This bid is known as the grand slam force and while it is used all over the world it is as American as apple pie.

It was invented in the early days of contract by the late Ely Culbertson. It tells partner to bid a grand slam in the agreed suit if he holds two of the three top honors. In this case the jump to five no-trump set hearts as the agreed suit.

In modern dress this convention has added ramifications. Thus, South could respond with six clubs, six diamonds or six hearts if he did not hold two of the three top honors. In general the higher the bid the better the hand so that six hearts would show a six-card suit and one of the two top honors; six diamonds a five-card suit and one of the two top honors and six clubs would deny holding either the ace or the king.

Halas Shows No Sight of Retiring

CHICAGO (AP) — George Halas, leaving Father Time in the starting blocks, gingerly celebrated his 72nd birthday, declaring retirement is furthestmost in his mind.

He spent his birthday Thursday in the 20th strategy session with his assistant coaches since his Chicago Bears closed the 1966 National Football League season with a disappointing 5-7-2 record.

"The thing I would really like to celebrate is a championship," said Papa Bear. "We need every minute of work we can do for 1967, birthdays included."

Halas was among those honored Thursday night at the annual Chicago Old Timers' Baseball Association dinner, at which he received a special achievement award.

"I got the recognition on the basis of my hitting average in 1919 during a brief time as outfielder for the New York Yankees," Halas said.

"I batted either .089 or .092—can't remember which."

Kerry O'Brien Moving Down to the Mile

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Having given American runners a lesson in the two-mile, Australia's Kerry O'Brien is moving down to the mile.

O'Brien has run the two fastest two-miles of the indoor track season, setting meet records in the Millrose Games — 8:39.6 — in New York and the Boston A. A. games — 8:38.4.

However, since he will be running the two-mile in his last American race, at the Philadelphia Inquirer Games Saturday, the 20-year-old runner decided to take it easy at the shorter distance in the New York Knights of Columbus meet Friday. His best time for the mile is 4:02.7, run outdoors at the British Empire Games in Kingston, Jamaica, last August.

O'Brien did his first serious running in the town of Quoin — populated by less than 1,000 hardy souls — when someone from a soft drink company turned up and organized a series of races, starting with Quoin and working up to larger districts. O'Brien was a winner then and has remained one.

His major competition in the mile at the KC meet will come from Canadian school teacher Ergas Laps, who beat O'Brien in the Empire Games at 4:01. Both were well behind Kenya's Kipchoge Keino, though, who won the event in 3:55.3.

Also running is Charlie Christmas, a 4:01 miler from Abilene Christian, Barry Brown of the New York AC and Bob Zieminski of Georgetown.

Bill Crothers of Toronto and Franz-Josef Kemper of West Germany are in the 1,000 while Dave Ellis of Toronto and Eamon O'Reilly of Irvington, N.J., top the two-mile entrants.

Churchmen Ask Fast in Bomb Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 2,000 churchmen want opponents of U.S. policy in Vietnam to begin partial fasting Feb. 8, Ash Wednesday. Participants would limit their meals to water, fruit juice, rice and tea.

The call for the fast came Wednesday just before a delegation from the "Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam" met with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. They reported McNamara was "sympathetic" to their position, but declined to state what the defense chief had told them.

Australia imported dromedaries more than a century ago. The one-humped camels now rove the country in wild herds.

Talent War in Making in Pro Ranks

NEW YORK (AP) — A war over professional basketball talent appears imminent with the formation of a new 10-team league that plans to begin operations next fall.

At a press conference announcing formation of the American Basketball Association Thursday, George Mikan, former star with the old Minneapolis Lakers who is commissioner of the league, said he expected a player war.

"We would be stupid not to ask players if they are not tied down," Mikan said. "You have to respect contractual obligations, but if there is a player without a contract, we invite him to contact us."

Mikan said Will Chamberlain, star center of the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association, had not been contacted. But Mikan added, "We hope his position is such that he can join us. We would like to have Will, Oscar Robertson and any players like that who are available."

The league plans to operate two, five-team divisions with New York, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Inc., Minneapolis and New Orleans in the Eastern Division and Dallas, Houston, Kansas City, Oakland and Anaheim, Calif., in the West.

Indoor Track Debut in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Indoor track makes its debut at the new San Diego International Sports Arena Saturday night with a host of the nation's top runners, jumpers and throwers entered.

Scheduled to compete are such stars as Tommie Smith, Bob Seagren, Randy Matson, Jim Grelle, Ralph Boston and Don Shy.

Smith, owner of the world record of 20.0 in the 220, will run in the 440 and the mile relay. His teammate from San Jose, Lee Evans, also will compete. Challenging Bob Seagren in pole vault will be Chris Papinicolaou of Greece, runner-up for the European championship.

Seagren set a world indoor record of 17-2 last weekend. And Neal Steinhauer of Oregon, who set the indoor record of 67-10 last week, will be out to beat Matson, the only 70-foot shotputter.

Kremlin Cool to Syrian Request

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A Syrian request for Soviet support in a "war of liberation" against Israel has received a cool response from the Kremlin, the weekly Al Sayyad said today.

The paper said Soviet authorities showed no sign of changing their policy of maintaining the status quo in the Middle East.

A recent spy case in Damascus showed that Syria's navy is equipped with Soviet rockets.

Scholar of 15 Top Man in Science

By GEORGE ESPER
NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Wilczek, at 15, is a quiet scholar who prefers astrophysics to dates. He's one of 40 finalists in the annual Westinghouse Scientific Talent Search.

While most teen-agers are having fun on the weekends, Frank is engrossed in astrophysics, mathematics and philosophy. He relaxes by listening to classical records, his favorite pastime.

"Once in a while I go to an occasional party," he says. "I'm tied up every Saturday taking courses in mathematics and astrophysics in Columbia University's science honors program."

Frank will be 16 years old on May 15 and a few weeks later will be graduated from Martin Van Buren High School in Queens. He is graduating at such a young age because he skipped the third and eighth grades.

"I hope to attend the University of Chicago and study mathematics and physics," he says. "They both are interesting rather than both being related."

While being a long-hair record collector, Frank doesn't wear his hair long like many young people.

"It's silly," he says, "and it's silly to object. I'm completely indifferent."

The mod style of dress, he says, is "horrible. A dad they're trying to put over."

Frank is 5 feet 7½ inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. His talent search project that will take him into the finals in Washington in March was an attempt to relate semigroups and groups in the field of algebra.

"I got really involved in mathematics," he says, "due to a certain teacher I had in my sophomore year. He got me very interested in it. I really don't know how I picked philosophy up."

Frank says he spends one or two hours on his school work at home each night.

"I do things independently," he says. "I read on my own in mathematics and philosophy. I take up topics I'm interested in."

His father, Frank J. Wilczek, is in the electronics field, in research and development. Frank has one brother, 10.

Philosophizing about his generation of teen-agers, Frank says "juvenile delinquents are amoral. They are a very small number."

"In general," he adds, "you can't specify this high school generation as better or worse than any other. The generalization of such a large number of people, I don't think can be valid."

"I think it's excellent that students are finally speaking up on things that concern them, things like the free speech movement. I think it was a very good effort. When it turned to filthy speech, I lost my sympathy for it, but I think the original goals and efforts were fine."

Some persons never are satisfied. Do your best with them and forget it.

The new Hope Village Shopping Center had its official Grand Opening Thursday morning with a ribbon cutting ceremony in the center of the parking area.

Left to right are: Vincent Foster of Foster Land and Realty Company, who showed the property originally to H. E. Enlow and then acted as his agent to purchase the entire site which was in excess of $100,000.00; Harry Cagle, manager of West Department Store; Douglas Drake, Co-owner and manager of Village Rexall Pharmacy; Royce Smith, manager of A & P Store; William Morris, manager of Morgan & Lindsey; Steve Bader, Co-owner of Village Rexall Pharmacy; Hope Mayor John B. Gardner, Jr. who cut the ribbon; Norman McCallion, sales promotion manager for Morgan & Lindsey; A. L. Knight, district manager of Morgan & Lindsey; E. E. Latham, president of Morgan & Lindsey; Gus Kennedy Jr., owner of Kennedy's Shoe Store; H. E. Enlow, Owner-Developer of the Shopping Center and Earl Thompson, manager of Kennedy's Shoe Store.

Rep. J. B. Smith of Marianna offered an amendment that would make the bill apply to only Pulaski County and then filibustered the measure through the morning hour.

In other action Thursday, the Senate:

— Approved on a voice vote a resolution by Sen. Guy Jones of Conway that would create a joint committee composed of three members of the Senate and seven members of the House to draft legislation that would permit school districts to institute kindergarten and adult education classes.

— Approved 34-0 a House bill

Showdown on Consular Treaty Seen

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said today he wouldn't allow the Senate to dodge a showdown on the embattled U.S.-Soviet consular treaty.

With President Johnson making a new appeal for approval of the treaty, Mansfield said he would ask the Senate to act on the proposal soon after the Foreign Relations Committee completes its hearings.

Mansfield held up the treaty in the 89th Congress rather than hazard a defeat that could bruise U.S.-Soviet relations.

He now sees increased prospects for the Senate mustering the two-thirds vote needed for ratification, but he said in an interview, "We'll have to take our chances."

"I feel so deeply this is in the national interest I have a duty to bring it up if it is brought out of the Foreign Relations Committee," Mansfield said.

Spokesmen for some of the treaty's most vocal opponents, including the American Legion and the conservative Liberty Lobby, go before the committee today.

Warren H. McDonald, the Legion's research director, said in prepared testimony that the treaty "would provide the Communist 'consular' agents in America with a license to spy" and would pose "both an unwise precedent and an unnecessary threat to the internal security of the United States."

Referring to the Vietnam war, McDonald said "the American Legion insists that this is not the time to be entering upon courses of interaction which give the appearance that we are in peaceful partnership with the Soviet Union."

At his news conference Thursday, Johnson sought to deal with opponents' charges that the treaty would open more doors for Soviet cloak-and-dagger operations. He declared the convention is needed for the protection of Americans visiting the Soviet Union and "raises no problem to our national security" at home.

First permanent settlement in the New World was Santo Domingo, capital of the Dominican Republic.

to governmental records.

The House, in amending the bill, deleted a provision of an amendment it adopted Wednesday that allowed governmental units to negotiate or discuss real estate matters in closed session. The new amendment also exempts such matters as adoption and medical records from public scrutiny.

The representatives expunged its Wednesday amendment action before adopting the new omnibus amendment. Rep. Leon Holsted of North Little Rock, who handled the measure in the House, said the real estate provision was objectionable to the Sigma Delta Chi journalistic society.

The House also approved bills creating a first offenders penal institution for felons under 21 years of age, establishing an advisory board to coordinate the activities of the state's four training schools and authorizing the Revenue Department to issue personal, prestige car licenses for an additional $10.

The representatives voted down a bid by Rep. Allan Dishongh of Little Rock to place on the calendar his bill requiring payment of the prevailing wage on public works projects of $25,000 or more in counties with a population of less than 20,000.

Rep. J. B. Smith of Marianna offered an amendment that would make the bill apply to only Pulaski County and then filibustered the measure through the morning hour.

In other action Thursday, the Senate:

— Approved on a voice vote a resolution by Sen. Guy Jones of Conway that would create a joint committee composed of three members of the Senate and seven members of the House to draft legislation that would permit school districts to institute kindergarten and adult education classes.

— Approved 34-0 a House bill that would make debt adjustment a misdemeanor punishable by fines of $500 to $1,000 and/or one year in prison. (Debt adjusters contract with debtors to receive their money and distribute it among their creditors.)

— Approved 31-0 a House bill that would set the daily pay for poll officials at $7, or any greater amount approved by a county quorum court.

— Approved 32-0 a bill by Sen. Virgil Fletcher of Benton that would permit $350,000 of the money from bonds issued for construction of the new state Revenue Department building to be used to remodel the State Capitol offices vacated by the department.

— Approved 29-0 a bill by Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff that would increase the mileage allowance for members of the state Penitentiary Board from six cents to nine cents a mile.

— Approved 32-0 a bill by Sen. Guy Jones of Conway that would require municipal judges in cities of 10,000 or more to have six years of legal experience.

— Approved 31-0 a bill by Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott that would make it unlawful to dump dead poultry on public or private highways, roads, rights-of-way or property.

— Approved 32-0 a bill by Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff that would permit state penitentiary employees to retire at age 65 after 17 years of employment, instead of age 55 after 20 years of employment.

The Senate convenes at 10 a.m. Friday.

In other action, the House approved:

— A bill making it unlawful to possess or sell a hallucinogenic drug.

— A bill setting the maximum length at 55 feet for a combination of motor vehicles.

— A bill making it a felony for three or more persons to attack a law enforcement officer on duty.

— A bill making child molestation a felony.

— A resolution expressing the General Assembly's sorrow over the death of the three astronauts.

— A Senate bill allowing individuals a $50 tax deduction and corporations a $100 deduction for political campaign contributions.

Power Plan Reported Unacceptable

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department said Thursday that a proposed contract dealing with power changes and transmission arrangements has been found unacceptable by the Southwest Power Administration and eight utility companies.

The SPA, which has headquarters in Tulsa, Okla., markets power from federal hydroelectric projects in Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas.

The other companies are the Arkansas Power and Light Co., Arkansas-Missouri Power Co., Central Louisiana Electric Co., Gulf States Utilities Co., Louisiana Power and Light Co., Oklahoma Gas and Electric Co., and the Public Service Co. of Oklahoma.

Contract negotiations began under instructions from the appropriations committees of Congress after the SPA had asked for money last year to start building power lines to connect federal projects and to provide additional transmission facilities.

Money for Capitol Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - A $12,500 appropriation for an inspection of the cornice of the state Capitol Building was approved Thursday by the Arkansas House-Senate Joint Budget Committee.

A survey already is under way by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

The action began when a 75-pound piece of marble fell from the cornice two weeks ago

2nd Bonus Bill Passed, Veto Assured

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas House swiftly passed and sent to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Thursday a bill to give teachers a bonus of $155 knowing that it surely will meet the fate of a similar bill—a veto.

This did not dim the enthusiasm with which the representatives shoved through the measure, the Senate's version of a House bill vetoed Wednesday by Rockefeller.

The House broke in with applause three times while Rep. G. W. Turner Jr. of Pine Bluff urged passage as "a mandate" to show the teachers they will get the bonus plus their promised $500 raises.

The vote was 94-1. The only dissenter was Rep. James Sheets of Siloam Springs, a Republican who declined to join his two GOP colleagues who voted for the bill.

"My vote isn't as partisan as it sounds because I think the teachers will suffer," Sheets told newsmen.

Meanwhile, the Senate failed by one vote to adopt a bill to give teachers tenure after three years in one school district. The vote was 17-13 with 18 votes needed for passage. The Senate is still awaiting the House version of the bill.

To confirm what everyone already knew, Sheets said he talked with Rockefeller after the vote on the bonus bill and said the governor told him he would apply the veto.

Rockefeller says distributing $2.79 million in school funds that accumulated in 1955-56 would take away money that is needed to fulfill his pledge of $500 raises for the teachers.

Rep. Sherman Williams of Little Rock, author of the vetoed House bill, said the vote on the Senate version couldn't be construed as an indication that the legislature would override Rockefeller's veto.

"Voting for this bill and voting to override the governor's veto are two different things," Williams said.

He said he hadn't decided whether to bring his bill up again.

The representatives approved the Senate measure with no debate after Turner told them the proposal was not a diversion of funds, but that it would be a diversion if the money were not given to the teachers now.

Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock, author of the Senate teacher tenure bill, hopes to build up support for the House version before it comes before the senators. Most of his opposition in the Senate contended that his measure represented "city folks" attempting to dictate policy to school boards of rural areas.

"This is not a city bill against the country boys," Allen said. "I represent a rural county (Lonoke) and I was raised in the country. I introduced this bill because 18,000 Arkansas teachers are concerned about their job security and because it will give them a little dignity."

"I want to plead with you Little Rock people not to force this on the school boards that do not want it," said Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton. "If I were a teacher, I wouldn't want to stay in a school district where I wasn't wanted."

The House defeated a motion by Rep. Jack S. Oakes of Augusta for reconsideration of its passage of its own tenure bill earlier this week.

In other action, the House sent back to the Senate Allen's "freedom of information" bill after amending it. The measure requires open meetings of all governmental units except grand juries and public access

Scores Wage Guideline Abandonment

WASHINGTON (AP) - Members of a joint congressional committee have sharply rapped administration plans to abandon federal wage-price guidelines. One member suggests Congress should set the standards.

The criticism came Thursday as Chairman Gardner Ackley of the President's Council of Economic Advisers led off Senate-House Economic Committee hearings into President Johnson's economic report.

The council said last week it was not planning to post a "numerical standard" for wage increases like the 3.2 per cent figure established in 1962. It said higher wage hikes must be anticipated in view of sharp increases in the cost of living.

The reasoning was attacked by Rep. Henry S. Reuss, R-Wis., who said "it seems to me this is just the time we need guidelines, not just the time we need guidelines."

Reuss said he planned to suggest that "this committee itself consider taking up the task of establishing wage and price guidelines for labor and management."

Republican members of the committee also attacked Johnson's proposal for a 6-per cent tax surcharge, to begin July 1, as "ill-timed." They called for a "complete turnabout" in national economic policy.

That request coincided with renewed calls from Republican leaders for Congress to reject Johnson's $135-billion budget, forcing the administration to submit a new spending program.

At a joint news conference, House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said the budget was "full of gimmickry and manipulation" and Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said the President himself should call it back from review.

Chairman William Proxmire, D-Wis., of the joint committee accused the administration of a "serious economic blunder" last year in underestimating Vietnam war costs by $10 billion. Ackley said Congress has been warned supplemental funds might be needed.

On another front, Johnson scored a partial victory when the House Ways and Means Committee approved a $6-billion boost in the national debt ceiling.

Johnson has asked for a $7 billion increase in the ceiling to $337 billion. The House Ways and Means Committee trimmed that figure $1 billion before sending the measure to the floor, where debate is scheduled to start next Wednesday.

Earlier, Republican attempts to amend the debt ceiling bill were defeated 15 to 10 on a straight party line vote.

Any Step Halts Bombs, Johnson Says

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP) - President Johnson says he would be willing to halt American bombing of North Vietnam if the Hanoi government agreed to "just almost any step" in return.

Johnson, however, emphasized six times during a 25-minute White House news conference Thursday in these or similar words that "with the information that I have, with the knowledge that is brought to me, I must say that I do not interpret any action (by Hanoi) that I have observed as being a serious effort to either go to a conference table or to bring the war to an end."

At the same time, Johnson expressed eagerness for almost any type of discussions among the combatants - even talks to decide whether there was any basis for serious peace negotiations. And, in responding to a question that did not even deal with the war, the President volunteered: "I go to bed every night feeling that I failed that day because I could not end the conflict in Vietnam."

Standing before live television cameras and radio microphones in the crowded East Room, Johnson filed 11 questions and made one brief statement on his own. Most questions dealt directly with Vietnam.

On other subjects, the President:

Volunteered praise for the proposed U.S.-Soviet consular treaty, now facing an uncertain fate in the Senate, and sought to offset widespread opinion that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover opposes the treaty.

Briefing on Apollo Space Tragedy

MANNE SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) - Space agency officials and top engineers of the nation's moon program receive a private briefing today on the Apollo spaceship tragedy.

Shortly before the scheduled briefing a power supply problem forced a 24-hour postponement - until Saturday night - of the attempt to launch the Lunar Orbiter 3 into orbit about the moon from Cape Kennedy, Fla.

The complex camera package is intended to help pick definite lunar landing sites for American astronauts. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the trouble appeared to be in the electrical power system running between the ground and the payload.

The launching of the Atlas-Agena rocket on the 92-hour, quarter-million-mile trip was reset for 8:15 p.m. (EST) Saturday. It emphasizes the determination of NASA to push on toward the moon despite the Apollo 1 disaster in which three astronauts died a week ago.

Says Unity in Education in Jeopardy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Loyd L. Turner, president of the Fort Worth, Tex., Board of Education, told delegates to the South Central Region of the Department of Classroom Teachers Conference Thursday night that unity in public education "has never been more in jeopardy than now."

"If education isn't united and doesn't provide the leadership required, the federal government and big business are going to move in," Turner said. Turner said unity should include everybody in education from lay and professional leaders to school board members, superintendents, administrators and teachers.

The conference, which draws teachers from Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska, will continue through Saturday.

Russia, China Break Seems Inevitable No Matter Who Wins

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

A break in Moscow-Peking diplomatic relations is a distinct possibility if Mao Tse-tung and Defense Minister Lin Biao win the power struggle in China.

It may take time for the smoke to clear. The Russians seem to be waiting and watching, their sympathies with the anti-Mao forces, but apparently without much confidence that they can win out.

There is another side to this, however. The Soviet press has failed to show any superabundance of enthusiasm for any Chinese leaders on either side. Perhaps the Russians already have lost interest in mending relations with their Communist brethren in China.

Yugoslav Communists based in Moscow now consider the Kremlin's relations with Peking close to the snapping point. One Belgrade radio correspondent reports that "discreet hints are being made in Moscow political circles on the possibility that changes may occur in Soviet-Chinese relations."

Soviet patience has been strained. For a week there have been riotous anti-Moscow demonstrations near the Soviet Embassy in Peking, denounced by the Soviet press as "outrages."

Peking reported this week that more than a million Chinese in all participated in the demonstrations, among whose milder slogans was "Bash the dogs' heads of Kossygin and Brezhnev." Alexei N. Kossygin is the Soviet premier. Leonid I. Brezhnev is Soviet party chief.

The provocation for the Peking demonstrations was an incident in Moscow that had the look of something deliberately staged by the Chinese. The Soviet news agency Tass said it was "nothing but an undisguised provocation planned in advance."

Matters between Peking and Moscow grow worse by the hour. The Chinese are accusing Moscow of organizing a plot with the Americans and Japanese to move into Manchuria. It is doubtful that matters can be put right again between the two, no matter who wins out in Peking.

A break in relations would begin a new stage in the feud which could result eventually in heavy concentrations of troops of both countries along the frontiers and a period of deep suspicion and hostility which would have a strong impact on the political future of Asia.

Wants Congress Code of Ethics

BOSTON (AP) - A resolution adopted by directors of the Massachusetts Council of Churches calls upon Congress to establish a code of ethical standards for its members.

The resolution, offered by the Rt. Rev. Anson P. Stokes Jr., Episcopal bishop of Massachusetts, says such action by Congress "should not await public pressure."

Castro Wants to Buy Silver

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - The Cuban government has offered to buy silver from the people at 1.25 pesos an ounce.

This price, announced in a Havana radio broadcast monitored here, compares with $1.37 on the U.S. market. A peso is officially pegged at a dollar, but brings much less on the free market.

New Drive on Border of Cambodia

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) - U.S. B52 bombers pounded war Zone "C" with three raids today in what could be the prelude of a new American drive to clear the Viet Cong from that long-time jungle redoubt along the Cambodian frontier.

A triple blow against Communist positions 62 to 68 miles northwest of Saigon made a total of six strikes against the Viet Cong stronghold by the B52's since last Saturday.

U.S. military headquarters also announced that an American ground force of at least 8,000 men have started a new search-and-destroy operation 29 miles northeast of Saigon in war Zone D.

The multibrigade force began the drive, called Operation Big Spring, on Wednesday. So far, it has encountered only slight resistance. Commanders reported 14 Viet Cong killed to date in scattered, small skirmishes, with U.S. casualties termed light.

Taking part in Big Spring were the 173rd Airborne Brigade and the 1st Brigade of the 9th Infantry Division, which arrived in Vietnam last December, U.S. headquarters said.

During the day, the South Vietnamese government released 30 war prisoners to North Vietnam in a ceremony at the Ben Hai bridge in the middle of the demilitarized zone which separates North and South Vietnam.

Officials said that at the last minute, two of the prisoners refused repatriation and elected to remain in South Vietnam. The two were Viet Cong guerrillas, while the other 28 were North Vietnamese soldiers. The prisoner release was timed as a gesture for Tet, the Lunar New Year.

Heart Fund Benefit Monday Night

The Hope Kiwanis and Lions Clubs will play their annual benefit game for the Heart Fund Monday night, February 6 at 6:45. This game will be followed by a karate exhibition given by Hope Black Belt holder, Joe Hooten, and two companions from Texarkana. The junior and senior class girls will top off the evenings entertainment in their game which will start at 8:15.

This annual game between these two civic clubs is rapidly turning into a grudge battle. Tuesday night Lion Johnny Turner invaded the Kiwanis practice session and came out with five stitches above his eye when Johnny (Half Truth) Graves accidentally hit him six times with his elbow while driving for a lay-up shot. Turner said he will be ready by Monday when game time rolls around.

In the last three games, each team has one win and a tie. This years game will prove to be a mixture of good, spirited action along with a few laughs.

The Kiwanis roster includes Steve Marlar, Bill Hairr, Johnny Graves, Al Graves, Bob Moers, Lynn Harris, Rufus Herndon III, Dean Murphy, E. P. Young, Jr., Jon Leim, Mitch LaGrone and coach Guy Grigg.

The Lion Players are Jack Gathright, Jack McClendon, Charlie Key, Ralph Harrison, Wes Huddleston, Don Johnson, Jim Gunter, Tom Waters, David Brown, Johnny Turner and Player-coach Lowell Harris.

The karate exhibition, which will begin about 8:00, will feature Hope's Joe Hooten, a black belt performer. This will be a repeat of an earlier exhibition which was well received. For those who have never seen karate, this promises to be a most interesting performance.

The Junior and Senior class girls game always proves to be a battle royal and this game will be no exception. The pride of both classes is at stake and that has to create great interest among students and adults alike.

The whole show is for a real good cause - the Heart Fund. Admission is 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults. Any additional contributions to the Heart Fund will be greatly appreciated.
